

Press Release: Dancing Vivaldi

The Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment (OAE) join forces with choreographer Henri Oguike to take on The Four Seasons and reimagine Vivaldi's seminal masterpiece in a striking new visual interpretation, premièred on 8 February 2013, at the Queen Elizabeth Hall, Southbank Centre.

Fusing period performance with contemporary dance, violinist Kati Debretzeni leads the Orchestra in a new work that will explore the unity between music and movement, with Debretzeni herself becoming part of the choreography.

V4 : The Seasons is Oguike's most significant commission since collaborating with the Rambert Dance Company in 2009. The award winning choreographer is renowned for his vigorous, intricate and strong sense of musicality.

A Preview Performance of V4 : The Seasons takes place on 7 February at The Night Shift, Queen Elizabeth Hall, 9pm.
